Area Served McDonough and Fulton Counties

Eligibility Everyone regardless of religion, creed or race.

Fee No fee for Youth Services. Family Counseling Programs funded by McDonough County United Way, Illinois Attorney General's Office, DCFS, DHS, insurance co-pays, Employee Assistance Program payments, client fees, and private donations.

Services Provided Their prevention, diversion, and intervention services aim to stabilize families in crisis, prevent juvenile delinquency, and divert youth at risk of involvement in the child welfare or juvenile justice systems. Programs available include: marriage, family, and individual counseling: women's counseling and support family planning; crisis intervention services; and adoption information. The counseling programs aim to address a wide variety of problems and situations. The women's counseling and support services program addresses problem pregnancy situations, providing free pregnancy test as usual as usual as well as counseling to discuss questions or fears about parenting, the adoption option, and referrals for medical care. The violence intervention effort program offers services to victims of domestic violence and their families to help break the cycle of violence. Other services and programs are developed on an ongoing basis to serve other human concerns and address current problem situations.
